DECORATING COMMITTEE MEETING IN THE SOUTH BUILDING COMMUNITY ROOM WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 29, 2008

9:30 P.M.

UNOFFICIAL MINUTES

CALL TO ORDER: Chairman Radice called the meeting to order at 9:30 a.m.

ROLL CALL: Edith Miller, Clare Radice, Ceel Spuhler, Janet Tyler and Mary Beth Marino were in attendance. Association members Becky Werner, Sally Kelley, Dee Platt and Joan Cole attended.

REVIEW MINUTES FROM PREVIOUS MEETING: No minutes were presented.

MAIL ROOM DECORATION: The Board of Directors asked the Decorating Committee to look at ways to “spruce up” the building mailrooms. The Committee agreed that updating the mailrooms using the least amount of dollars was most appropriate at this time. A motion was made by Clare Radice and seconded by Edith Miller to have Committee members look at consignment shops and retail shops for one bookcase to replace the bookshelves in the north building mailroom in an amount not to exceed $300.

The Committee will also look at purchasing a new armchair for the East building mailroom in an amount not to exceed $150.

The Committee requests volunteer help to repair loose upholstery on a chair located in the East building west lobby.

Since the artificial trees are deteriorating with age, the Committee generally felt that all silk trees in the mailrooms should be replaced.

All attending the meeting chose the color “Latte” for the wall color in the south building mailroom. This same color in a semi-gloss will be used on the wood surrounding the mailboxes. Volunteer help is requested to paint.

The Committee decided to work on one mailroom at a time.

QUESTIONS & COMMENTS FROM UNIT OWNERS: No additional comments were made.

ADJOURN: The Committee adjourned at 11:00 a.m.
